I. Special Education - Child Study Team Summer Staff - (Amended)

Strategic Plan Link:

Goal: Human Resources

To improve the recruitment, retention, and development of district staff.

The Interim Superintendent of Schools recommends, and I so move, the following:

RESOLUTION

The Plainfield Board of Education recognizes that a highly competent, skilled, and dedicated workforce is essential to the success of the District and the students. Therefore, it has provided the Interim Superintendent of Schools the authority to employ non-administrative and administrative staff members to provide services for students who have been referred for special education. The Child Study Team will work between July 1, 2011 through August 19, 2011, Monday – Thursday, between the hours of 8:00am – 4:00pm for a maximum number of six (6) hours per day, at a cost to be determined by the availability of personnel and/or individual summer caseload(s).

Referrals of students are made to the Office of Special Education by parents, State and Federal judges, State and Federal agencies, parents, and school personnel. The referrals are for a determination of the need for special education and related services for a student. Referrals can be made for students between the ages of 3 years to 21 years. According to Federal law and State statutes, referrals cannot be denied and must be responded to in set times and completed within 90 days. (Exclusive of school holidays but inclusive of summer months). More than fifty new referrals have been made within the past month. The services of a Child Study Team, Speech/Language Specialists, general education and special education teachers are needed to accommodate the referrals that have been made and those that come during June, July and August in order to remain in compliance with Federal Law and New Jersey Statutes.

Then following is an amendment to the June 21, 2011 Board Agenda to increase the number of hours for the speech language specialist to provide an evaluation for a child as per IDEA regulations and NJAC 6A code.

RESOLVED, that the Plainfield Board of Education approves the employment of the listed Child Study Team member, Speech Language Specialist between July 1, 2011 and August 19, 2011. The cost will be at a rate of $35.00 per hour and determined by the availability of personnel and/or individual summer caseload(s) to be charged to account 20-251-200000-104E-32-0000 (IDEA CO Basic Salaries).

Name	Position	Rate of Pay/Maximum Amount

M. Summer Programing (WIB TANF)

Strategic Plan Link:

Goal 1: Learning Outcomes

To improve the learning and academic performance of all students in all PPS.

The Interim Superintendent of Schools recommends, and I so move, adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLUTION

The Plainfield Board of Education is committed to ensuring that all students succeed academically and reach their full potential as productive citizens. To this end, the Department of Student Intervention and Family Support Services has applied for and received funding from the Union County Workforce Investment Board/Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (WIB TANF) programs.

The Union County WIB is charged with helping economically disadvantaged youth ages 17 through 21 to improve academic performance in school, access job training and higher education opportunities, gain the skills needed to progress in career goals, and obtain employment.

The Department of Student Intervention and Family Support Services through the School Based Youth Services Program will implement a summer work program that will provide work related experience to 18 students ranging from 17 to 21 years of age. The program will give the students the opportunity to develop appropriate skills necessary to be successful in school and in the workplace.

It is recommended that permission be granted to compensate the 18 students who will participate in this summer work program. They will be compensated at $7.25 per hour for a maximum of $652.50.

Compensation for all students will be provided through funding by the WIA/TANF grant. The program will operate Monday-Thursday 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. from August 8, 2011 through August 31, 2011.

RESOLVED, that the Plainfield Board of Education approves the hiring of the students whose names are on file in the Board Secretary's Office to work for the Student Intervention and Family Support Services School Based summer work program. There will be no cost to the district.

Staff Development Workshops provide staff development in math and literacy. The following Professional Developers will provide professional development in grades K-12; Nicki Newton, Christine Mulgrave, Kathy Adelman, Joan Backer, Gayle Palka, and Kirsten Widmer; will provide math workshops (5 sessions) to Plainfield Public Schools' grade levels K-2, 3-5, 6-8 and 9-12. Through the series of workshops the consultants will provide district staff a vast repertoire of practical strategies that can be easily and immediately implemented.

Dr. Nicki Newton's experience includes best practices, guided math and math centers as well as curriculum mapping. She has taught elementary, middle and graduate schools. Dr. Newton worked with Heidi Hayes Jacobs in facilitating both Curriculum Mapping and Interdisciplinary Curriculum Institutes at Teachers College, Columbia University for several years. She builds upon current curriculum research and theory to provide practical, realistic 21st century strategies in today's classrooms.

Christine Mulgrave's expertise is in the areas of K-8 Mathematics and effective technology usage. She specializes in creating student and teacher-friendly standard-bearing routines for upper elementary and middle school grades, differentiating instruction using Guided Math/Math Centers, developing and actualizing a mathematics vision for schools and strategies for teaching without telling.

Kathleen Adelman is master high school and middle school math teacher, and K-8 math specialist and math supervisor. She has provided professional development for the last 5 years focusing on implementing reform curricula, especially Everyday Math, Math Trailblazers and Connected Math; implementing math core curriculum standards; using differentiation in instruction; and using best practices to improve student performance.

Staff Development Workshops – cont.

Joan Backer is an independent literacy and math consultant. She is a member of the Marilyn Burns and AUSSIE consultant communities and works with Lucy West, author of Content Focused Catalog.

Gayle Palka has been in public education over 20 years. Her background includes teaching middle and high school, providing professional scoring training, writing as a Senior Mathematics Editor, and independently designing workshops for K-12 teachers.

Kirsten Widmer is an educational consultant working in elementary, middle and high schools. She has over 12 years' experience as an independent consultant. She has authored curriculum and corresponding units of study for school districts in Michigan and New Jersey. Kirsten is co-author of "Workshops That Work!: 30 Days of Mini-lessons", which provides strategies for upper elementary and middle school teachers launching reading and writing workshops in their classrooms, and has presented at NCTE on writing to learn strategies in the content areas and democracy in teaching.

Strategic Plan Link:

Goal 1: Learning Outcomes:

To improve the learning and academic performance of all students in all PPS.

The Interim Superintendent of School recommends, and I so move, adoption of the following:

RESOLUTION

The Rutgers University – Rutgers Cooperative Extension Department of Nutritional Sciences, a sub contractor of the Union County Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP-Ed Plan), desires to enter into an agreement with the Plainfield Board of Education to offer behaviorally-focused, nutrition classes and workshops for elementary school students.

The workshops are designed to help educate students about the benefits of making healthy choices and the importance of food safety. The program also supports the district's efforts to provide nutrition education in elementary schools, reinforces its school lunch policy, and is aligned with the health component of the New Jersey Core Curriculum Content Standard 2.1 (Wellness) and Science Component 5.1 (Scientific Process). Workshops will be conducted during health and science classes at identified schools and will be provided in two, ten-week sessions; with kindergarten through third grades receiving 30 minutes of instruction, and fourth through fifth grades receiving 45 minutes of instructional time.

The workshops will be offered at Cedarbrook K-8 Center, Clinton K-8 Center, Cook K-8 Center, Washington Community School, and Woodland Elementary School from October 1, 2011 through September 30, 2012.

RESOLVED, that the Plainfield Board of Education enters into an agreement with Rutgers University – Rutgers Cooperative Extension Department of Nutritional Sciences to offer behaviorally-focused, nutrition classes and workshops for elementary students for the 2011-2012 school year at no cost to the district.

D. Teachers College Columbia University Reading & Writing Project – Plainfield Public Schools

Strategic Plan Link:

Goal 1: Learning Outcomes

To improve the learning and academic performance of all students in all Plainfield Public Schools.

Goal 2: Human Resources

To improve the recruitment, retention and development of district staff.

The Interim Superintendent of Schools recommends, and I so move, adoption of the following:

RESOLUTION

The Plainfield Board of Education has identified an instructional need for professional development for teachers in writing. Data confirms that schools that commit to systematic professional development with the Teachers College Columbia University Reading and Writing Project experience significant improvement in students' ELA test scores as compared to their peers in non-Project schools.

Lucy Calkins is the author of many books on the teaching of reading and writing, including two foundational texts: The Art of Teaching Reading (Pearson), and The Art of Teaching Writing. Her other publications include One-to-One: The Art of Conferencing with Young Writers, the series: Units of Study for Primary Writing: A Yearlong Curriculum and Units of Study for Teaching Writing, Grades 3-5.

The Teachers College will offer training/coaching to six schools that will serve as models for the district at a rate of $1,830.00 per day per school for a total of 5 days per school throughout the 2011-2012 school year.

RESOLVED, that the Plainfield Board of Education approves payment to Teachers College Reading and Writing Project in the amount of $54,900.00 for 30 days of school based professional development and coaching in writing (5 days per school). Availability of funds for this item has been verified and will be charged to FY 2012 NO Child Left Behind Title I School In Need of Improvement budget line.

E. Children's Literacy Initiative

Strategic Plan Link:

Goal 1: Learning Outcomes

To improve the learning and academic performance of all students in all Plainfield Public Schools.

Goal 2: Human Resources

To improve the recruitment, retention and development of district staff.

The Interim Superintendent of Schools recommends, and I so move, adoption of the following:

RESOLUTION

The Plainfield Board of Education has identified an instructional need for professional development for teachers to learn best practices in reading and writing. The Children's Literacy Initiative is designed to work with teachers to transform instruction so that all children can become powerful readers and writers. Its goal is to close the gap in literacy achievement between disadvantaged children and their more affluent peers and to teach reading and writing to children entering school with little early literacy experience. The professional development is designed to provide teachers with high-impact strategies and techniques.

Children's Literacy Initiative has agreed to facilitate professional development throughout the 2011-2012 academic year. The focus will provide all K-3 district teachers with best practices in literacy, including one-on-one coaching and the facilitation of grade level meetings and seminars.

The Children's Literacy Initiative will provide training for all K-3 district instructional staff members. It includes 24 full day seminars on Reading Workshop, Writing Workshop, and Comprehension strategies. It also includes individual/group coaching for all K-3 teachers. Coaching will be a follow-up to grade level meetings, book discussions and seminars. In addition, all classroom teachers will attend several grade level meetings facilitated by CLI trainers. The grade level meetings will be a follow-up to seminars and one on one/group coaching. As well as, two parent workshops on "Supporting Your Child at Home with Reading." The total cost includes materials and professional development.

RESOLVED, that the Plainfield Board of Education approves payment to Children's Literacy Initiative in the amount of $130,000.00. The funds for this program will be provided through FY 2012 No Child Left Behind Title I 200-300 accounts.
