VIII. REPORT OF DELEGATES/LEGISLATIVE REPORT

Ms. Barksdale recently attended a legislative session sponsored by NJSBA and stated that it is not only Plainfield that is suffering from budget cuts.

Mrs. Logan-Leach moved, seconded by Ms. Peterson to offer a second privilege of the floor after budget presentation with five members in favor and Mrs. Gilbert opposed.

Rasheed Abdul-Haqq inquired if funds came back to the district from the charter school that closed.

Danielle Fletcher inquired if raises in the presentation were for both PEA & PASA.

Leola Bellazin questioned if funds left over from the closing of the Pressman School can be used to balance the budget next year.

Katherine Cardona indicated that PEA has great concerns and we're working with a skeleton crew already.

Maria Pellum questioned enrollment numbers for FY11.

Renata Hernandez wanted to know who the Chief School Administrator has reached out to in the community to discuss budget cuts.

Ms. Barksdale stated that the budget issues should not be anyone's political agenda. The issues are statewide and everyone should come together as a community.

Mrs. Campbell had a number of questions about the budget, especially about "breakage" and what the savings might be.

Mrs. Logan-Leach inquired if we knew the number of PEA & PASA staff that will be reduced. She stated she was not happy with the budget process that has been used this year.
