- Location of items in the home
- Family responsibilities and chores

The following items have already been assessed in previous units and are being recycled in this unit:

- The structures necessary to:
 - State a preference or an opinion
 - Express like and dislike
 - Indicate location
 - Give and respond to commands (as memorized chunks)

descriptions of one's home, items in a home, furniture, and chores) using digital tools.

- Use memorized language to express preferences related to the division of household chores.
- Compare homes in the target and home cultures.
- Compare common household chores in the home culture with common chores in the target culture.
- Create a tour of a home from the target culture.
- Create multimedia rich visual representation of one's home or a home representative of the home culture.
- Retell highlights from an authentic video or simple written text that includes description of the home and its contents.
- Identify culturally specific household items and chores.

UNIT DESCRIPTION

Students use the target language in the three modes of communication to explore how homes in the home and target culture are similar and different. They compare the distribution of household chores in the home culture with that of the target culture(s). (Assessment of the interpretive mode may be in English; however, the text is always in the target language.)

Interpretive:

They interpret authentic written and video/audio texts such as news-clips, real estate advertisements, and short video clips that focus on home tours, descriptions of items in a home, and division of household responsibilities.

Interpersonal:

They engage in short unrehearsed/unscripted conversations with classmates, the teacher, and members of the target language community, in which they ask and answer questions related to their homes, common household items, furniture and chores.

Presentational:

They use lists, chunks of language and memorized phrases to describe the rooms and items in homes and to talk about chores in the home and target cultures.
