

TAP into Plainfield

Your Neighborhood News Online

Plainfield Upsets Rahway in Union County Tournament

By TAP INTO PLAINFIELD STAFF

February 18, 2016 at 9:00 PM

RAHWAY, NJ - The Plainfield boys basketball team pulled off a sizable upset in the Union County Tournament, handing Rahway just its third loss of the season, 70-67, on Tuesday.

Romey Talley and Jay'von Jackson each scored 17 points for Plainfield (10-11), which held a six-point lead going into the final quarter. Jaleel Simmons scored nine points and Jonathan Stevens had eight points for the Cardinals.