

Wednesday, April 5, 2017

30th annual Month of the Young Child celebration

The Plainfield community celebrates 30 years of advocating and acknowledging young children during the Month of the Young Child in April. At an event on Monday, April 3, at City Hall, the Plainfield Public Schools' Office of Early Childhood Services and Programs, Acting Superintendent of Plainfield Public Schools Dr. Debra J. Sheard and Mayor Adrian O. Mapp kicked off the month long celebration with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. Throughout the month, activities will be held at various early childhood centers across town. The culminating event will be held from 3 to 7 p.m. April 27, and will include a Free Family Fun Fair at Plainfield High School, 950 Arlington Ave. For more information, contact Evelyn Motley or Lumishka Cooper-Turnbull at Plainfield Public Schools Office of Early Childhood Programs & Services Department, 209 Berckman St., Plainfield, at 908-731-4372, emotley@plainfield.k12.nj.us or lturnbull@plainfield.k12.nj.us.