A celebration of Spanish heritage

Clinton Elementary School recently celebrated the end of Hispanic Heritage Month with a performance of Spanish dances by "Grupo Alborada."

More than 300 people watched as the group performed Flamenco and traditional Spanish dances to wrap-up the monthlong celebration, which spans from Sept. 15 to Oct. 15. The evening also featured traditional foods from several Latin American countries.

"I've never seen such a great turn out at any previous event. It was amazing and a great night to remember," said Patience Smith, site coordinator of the
